Conscious Discipline Focus: Listening & Following Directions

This month, we're focusing on listening and following directions. Children are practicing listening skills, following routines, and working together throughout the day.

In the classroom:

Following simple directions
Practicing classroom routines
Using listening ears during activities

Try it at home:

Give simple one-step directions
Practice routines together
Praise good listening skills
Listening skills help children feel successful and confident!

Center News

Congratulations to all the children that were able to complete another year of school! Please be sure to sign up with leadership if you plan to attend Bagels with Dad!
